

RITE NOW @ ROP

The Student Athletes of Lake Granbury Youth Services found a new way to express their creativity and give back to their community. The students and staff spent hours painting inspirational messages on rocks that will be passed out in the community, to brighten up parks and gardens. This activity helped the students explore their emotions, relieve stress, bond with the staff, as well as teaching them how to give back to their community.
